

we hope, discover and achieve

IRSF
INTERNATIONAL
RETT SYNDROME
FOUNDATION

Every 2 hours a girl is born with Rett syndrome and YOU know one...

THE IRSF EDUCATORS NETWORK

She is a student, client or patient of yours and we thank you for your attention to her education and learning experience!

Your interests and needs cross a wide spectrum and we would like to help by providing information and resources through email, teleconferences and webinars to meet all your needs. The resources we provide are appropriate for all your students and patients, not just individuals diagnosed with Rett syndrome.

The IRSF Educators Network is a place for you... comprised of educators, therapists and medical professionals across the country and various parts of the world.

Join The IRSF Educators Network and begin receiving amazing benefits right now. There is no charge and you'll receive a FREE copy of the Rett Syndrome Handbook: 2nd Edition by Kathy Hunter, a powerhouse of information to help you understand Rett syndrome better.

Register Today

Visit www.rettsyndrome.org/edunetwork to get started today!

Benefits Include:

- Latest Research Information
- Best Practices
- New Products
- Technology Tips and Tricks
- IEP Goals & Strategies
- Webinars on current topics of interest

Thank you for all that you do!

Your dedication means the world to those touched by Rett syndrome.

Contact Jennifer Endres for more information
jendres@rettsyndrome.org or 508-362-2220

By registering, you will be participating in October Rett Syndrome Awareness Month, so be sure to register by October 31, 2011.