Get the children's educational coloring book, created by Rett parents Nate and Jennifer Johnson, to help educate youth touched by YOUR Rett angel about Rett syndrome!

Special message from the author and illustrator: "I saw a design opportunity where a local family was looking for an artist to create an educational coloring book for young children...describing Rett syndrome and capitalizing on similarities between the girls with Rett syndrome and their peers. I hope this coloring book is educational, yet fun and interactive, for not only youngsters, but grown-ups alike."
