You won't want to miss this camp! The Rett community has exciting news to share this year. Several physicians from the Blue Bird Rett Center will be in attendance and will share a wealth of information to include the upcoming drug trials, studies and focus groups. The camp will also provide you with information about Texas resources and a chance to talk with experienced parents. Oh, did I mention you will have fun? Mark your calendars for this wonderful weekend.

Blue Bird Camp Kaity

- Bunkhouse accommodations are available for $15 p/p at Jones Creek Ranch for the nights of Friday and Saturday. Rett kids are free.* Please be prepared to bring your own linens, toiletries, etc., to make your stay comfortable. Please note these are large bunkhouses that are shared by all families, privacy can be obtained by hanging extra sheets between cots.
- For those attending Jones Creek Ranch Friday and Saturday night - check in is anytime after 3pm on Friday. Check out is by noon on Sunday. Should you need to arrive after 10pm on Friday, you will need to specify on the registration form so someone can arrange to meet you at the gate to let you in. You will need to call David Tovey upon arrival at 713-206-0247.
- For campers, all meals will be provided. Should you have special dietary restrictions, please be prepared to bring your own food.
- We ask that campers help supplement meals by providing one of the following for the group to share:
 - 12 pack of sodas, water, juice boxes, etc.
 - Snacks (cookies, chips, crackers, etc.)
- Box lunches will be provided for Saturday after physician panel.
- A $10 charge per person will be for Saturday attendees only. Rett Children & Adults are free*
- Saturday will take place outside the bunkhouses. Please bring a folding chair and anything you may need to make a day at the park enjoyable for you and your family.
