

Rettsyndrome.org

EdDay

CONNECT. SHARE. GROW.

Live Educational Opportunities

Intended for anyone wanting to connect on Rett syndrome issues important to families, especially clinical trial information and emphasis on the enriched environment. Attendees will enjoy a fun day of discussion and “living education” activities that will cover: research updates, medical and therapeutic interventions, and communication strategies.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS INCLUDE

- Mary Jones, MD
Medical Director, Rett Clinic,
UCSF Children's Hospitals Oakland
- Judy Lariviere, M.Ed, OTR/L,
Communications Specialist, Rett Clinic,
UCSF Children's Hospitals Oakland
- Saronjini Budden, MD, FRCP (C) FAAP,
Retired OHSU Rett clinic director and researcher
- Kyle Fink, PhD,
UCDavis, Center for Neuroscience and Institute for Regenerative Cures

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

In-pool aqua therapy; hands-on directed Communication activities; hippotherapy demonstration; clinical trial participation parent panel; nutrition recommendations; sibling activities and more!

SATURDAY, JULY 20, 2019

9:00am - 4:00pm

LOCATION

Camp Arroyo
5555 Arroyo Road
Livermore, CA 94550
Free onsite parking

REGISTER

www.rettsyndrome.org/EdDayCA2019
LIMITED SPACES, REGISTER EARLY!

FEE

$10 per person
Individuals with diagnosis are FREE

INCLUDES

Presentations, interactive panel discussion, activities, and lunch

*For questions or more information contact:
Paige Nues, pnues@rettsyndrome.org*

A Facebook event page will be developed to allow further networking – look for details!

THIS DAY IS MADE POSSIBLE BY GENEROUS GRANTS FROM:

Special thanks to UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital's Katie's Clinic for Rett and Related Disorders.

