

U.S. Event Updates & COVID-19 Contingency Announcement

Many non-essential meetings, events, conferences, sporting events, school field trips, leisure vacations and even some college/university classes that convene large numbers of people are being postponed around the world, including the U.S. Many employers are allowing and even encouraging employees to work from home when/where allowable.

At this point in time, all our Foundation's education events happening in the Spring, Summer, and Fall 2020 are continuing as planned, with contingency planning to postpone any or all of these if needed:

- Rett Ed Day in Baltimore, MD (June 6)
- RettGetAway in San Diego (June 18-21)
- Rett Ed Day in Vancouver, WA (Aug 15)
- Rett Ed Day in Greenville, SC (Sept 19)
- Rett Ed Day in Chicago, IL (Oct 10)

We encourage you to plan to join us, and book your travel plans with these recommendations:

- Purchase a refundable ticket
- Check with your travel insurance provider to make sure you have or add a "Cancel for Any Reason" (CFAR) policy (which may cover about 75% of your cost)
- Several airlines — including American, Delta, Frontier, JetBlue and United — have been waiving change fees for flights purchased between certain dates. For example, United Airlines states, "book any flight with us now through March 31, you can change it for free over the next 12 months – any ticket, any fare type, any destination."

We are working in partnership with local clinics and volunteers monitor the situation. If you register for one of our events, we will notify you as early as possible if we need to postpone or cancel.
